Obituary

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." Revelation 21:4

Jason Alexander Williams, was born on September 26, 1976 at St. Agnes Hospital in White Plains, NY to the late Barbara L. Williams and Eric D. Livingston. Jason was educated in the White Plains public school system where he ran track and played football. Following graduation, he attended Grambling State University.

After accepting Christ, he was baptized and joined the Calvary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Trollinger.

Jason, who was more commonly known to family as "Baby Jay" and in the community as "Wolf" was an individual who Never met a stranger. He had an infectious personality and a pleasant nature about himself, he bonded with everyone. It was not unusual for him to spend quality time with his younger cousins and God- daughter. He was well liked by so many different people. In the short time he was living in Durham he connected and developed relationships with more people than anyone can imagine.

Jason had a strong love for music and spent the greater part of his life trying to pursue it. He would encourage his 5year-old cousin to rap and would always greet him by saying "Wu-Tang" for the kids! His love for his 3 children was just as strong. He was a very proud dad!

Jason worked at different jobs during his lifetime. He was a dedicated employee of Millennium Print Group until his unexpected transition on Thursday, January 4, 2024 in Durham, NC .

He leaves to cherish his memory: 1 son, Jae Miller of Ocala, Florida; 2 daughters, Jaila and Miyana Williams of Yonkers, NY; God daughter Janae'ah Negash of Durham, NC; his 2nd mother Phyllis Mack of Durham, NC; 1 Aunt, Kathy Audrey Williams of White Plains, 1 great Aunt, Rose Robinson of Waterbury Conn., 2 cousins/sisters Keisha Andrews(Martel) of Mebane, NC & Lashonda Mack and her partner Jason Smith of Durham, N.C; Edwin /(Eddie) and Maria /(Vera) Thomas of White Plains, who he acknowledged as his brother and sister; Stepmother Valerie Simmons along with 2 step-sisters Shelbi Simmons and Shay S Rainey of White Plains; 3 Uncles Hasker Jr./(Chuck) and Cliton Livingston of White Plains, and Wilbert Livingston of Georgia.

Also left to mourn is a special family friend, Morel Thomas and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

He was predeceased by his brother Dwayne Thomas, Paternal grandparents Hasker and Ethel Livingston, Maternal grandparents Rev. Lawrence and Minnie Williams, 3 uncles: Earl Mack, Larry Williams, and Gary Livingston, 3 aunts: Gloria Alston, Shirley Osborn, and Rose Darden.

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.*

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

*So, when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart!!*

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
