

*God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

Obituary

JOSIE LEE WHITE was born in McComb Mississippi, she is the daughter of Grover White Sr. and Rosie Lee White. Josie grew up in Mississippi and attended and completed high school there. She later migrated to New York where she met and married Phil Odell Jerman (deceased) and that loving union produced two children. Her eldest son John Jerman, Esq and her loving daughter Annette Jerman. Josie loved doing hair and makeup and that motivated her to attend and graduate from beauty school in Mount Vernon, NY. Later in her life Josie moved to Connecticut where she remained until her passing.

She loved a beautiful, clean home with the aroma of good ole' soul food. Josie loved to entertain, dance and have get-togethers with family/friends. She started giving "fall bashes" where she would have big cook outs with family and friends. Josie could cook her "behind off". Lol Those around her felt the love! In a nutshell she loved her family/kids, loved the outdoors, dancing, beautiful flowers, loved to laugh, and absolutely loved cooking.

Josie was a beautiful, intelligent, fun loving, caring, comedic, and spunky woman. She would help everyone if she could. Josie loved family, her children didn't want or need for anything. She took great care of her children.

Josie transitioned on January 30, 2024 at the far too young age of eighty-two (82) She now joins her siblings in heaven sister Sue and brother Grover Jr.

She leaves to mourn her sisters: Ann and Carolyn, her son John (Wendy Ellerbee, fiancé), daughter Annette, beautiful grand daughter Chloe' Jerman; sweet niece Linda White cousins Albert McGhee, Maurice/Paulette McGhee, Kendall/Sandra McGhee and extended family, Brenda Johnson, Tynisa, The Riolo's, Andrew/Ann Weiss, Rod/Mina Randall, Sheila Lawrence, Kendra Fabin and Mitsie her wonderful caretaker.

She is now with GOD and her other lovely family/friends in Heaven. She will definitely be missed.
