

Roberta Sherman

Roberta Jean Sherman was born in Ainsworth, Nebraska on January 12, 1940 to Walter & Maxine Lucht. She was a twin to Robert Dean. She went to a one-room country school north of Crookston and graduated high school in Valentine.

On December 8, 1958, Roberta gave birth to a son, Rodney Brown. On August 19, 1965, she married William Sherman. To this union four children were born: Julie, Becky, Babe and JJ.

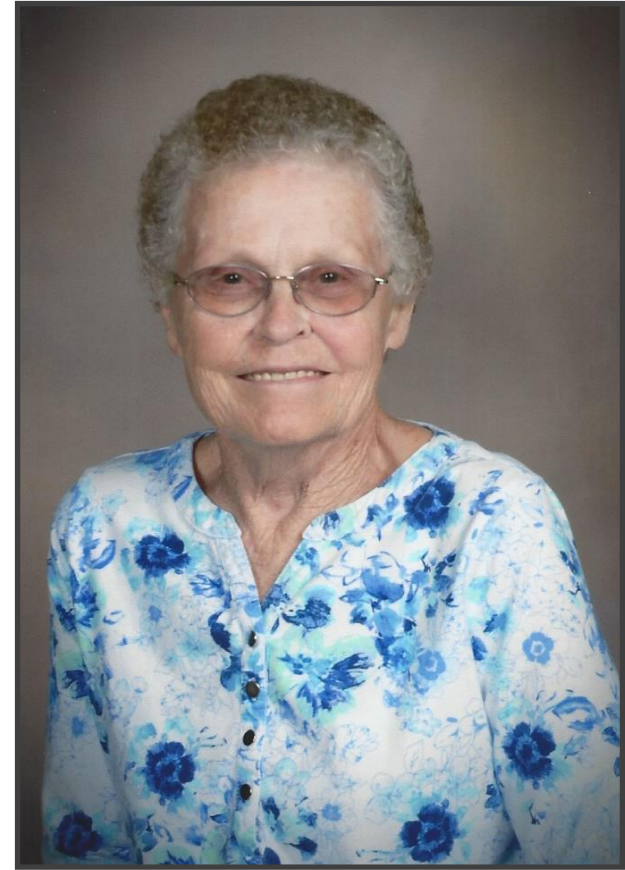

Roberta worked odd jobs over the years, but found her fit working at the deli at Henderson's IGA. She enjoyed baking breads, cinnamon rolls and runzas. She retired from Henderson's after 24 years of service.

Roberta tried to see the good in everyone. She often reminded us to 'be nice'. She enjoyed working in the yard and in her flower bed. She especially enjoyed being around her family and the little ones. When she was younger, she loved to ride horses.

Roberta passed away at her home on February 3, 2018, surrounded by her family.

She is survived by her husband Bill; 4 children: Julie (John) Jones, Becky (Eric) Poland and Larisa (David) Arnold, all of Valentine and JJ (Aprill) Sherman of Hayden, Idaho; 12 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren; sisters: Kathy (Duff) Tinant of Lakeview, SD and Rosemary Bolton of Del City, OK; and brother-in-law George Sherman and sister-in-law Loretta Melcher, both of Valentine.

Roberta was preceded in death by her parents Walt & Maxine Lucht, brother Robert Lucht, son Rodney Brown and great grandson Brooks Arnold.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
The way you do each day,
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
Please know I miss you, too.

But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an Angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand.

The Angel said a place was ready,
In heaven up above;
And that I'd have to leave behind,
All those I truly love.

I had so much to live for,
So much yet to do.
It seemed almost impossible,
That I was leaving you.

When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart;
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.
